

Kerry Hiles

Bass player & singer

South African actress, singer and bass player, Kerry Hiles, is based in East London, but travels nationally and internationally for engagements that include solo and band performances as a vocalist and/or bass player.

Highlights of her musical career include:

- Hotel residencies with cover bands in the Middle East
- Royal command performances as a bass player and singer in the Seychelles
- A full season as a musician, singer and cabaret artist onboard the cruise ship, The Symphony
- 4 years with the Barnyard Theatre group as a bass player and singer
- And as a singer with a vocal ensemble at Nelson Mandela's 80th birthday.

Kerry has also been the bass player in the orchestra pit for acclaimed musicals, and has experience playing in gospel groups, heavy metal bands and show bands.

She is a versatile performer, able to sing and play various styles of music, and capable of providing the perfect musical backdrop to a stylish cocktail event, or rocking the party til dawn.

